The cow tree of South America grows in the valley of the Amazons to a height of thirty or forty feet. Its milky juice, somewhat thinner than that of the India-rubber tree, will freely ooze out, whenever an incision is made into any part of the tree, from the roots to its very top. It will flow more copiously when near the soil, as the foliage naturally, as in the case of the maple sugar, absorbs its share of the formative liquid. The flavor and nutritious qualities of its secretion have been much exaggerated. It has often been fancifully styled by travelers as a veritable vegetable cow, ready to yield its milk whenever wanted, and offering to the people where it grows a full substitute for this nourishing article of food. But this is far from being the case. It will whiten coffee or chocolate about the same as prepared milk, but in the place of increasing the agreeable flavor of these beverages, it rather impairs their taste, as it is of rather neutral quality, with a slight astringency, which is not at all calculated to improve it. The raw juice of the India-rubber tree from any fresh incision has about the same flavor, and can hardly be distinguished in that respect from the fluid of the cow tree.

Said a parent to his little son who had committed some act of indiscretion: "Do you know that I am going to whip you?" "Yes," said the boy, "I suppose you are, because you are bigger than I am."—Boston Punch.

The Irish people can't eat the speeches made in this country over their woes, nor yet make soup of the resolutions passed at mass meetings. What they want is pork and potatoes.

St. Louis has discovered that no grocery in that city can more than pay running expenses unless it has a saloon at the rear end. A soda fountain in the front end has no effect to draw trade.

Old Maids and Old Bachelors.

Old maids are useful. They can cook, sew and take care of children, nurse sick people, and generally play the piano.

Old bachelors are useless. They do not even know how to drive nails or split wood.

Old maids are amiable. If one wants anything done that requires patience and kindness of heart, a single lady is sure to be the one to do it.

Old bachelors are ill-natured. They snub children, despise babies, and hate young mothers, and are always so busily employed in seeing that other people take good care of them that they have not a moment to any one else.

Old maids are nice to keep, and "young for their years."

Old bachelors generally have red noses, rheumatism in their knees, bald heads and mouths which turn down at the corners.

Old maids can make a home of one little room, and cook delicious meals for one over the gas jet in cunning little tin kettles, besides making all their own wardrobes.

Old bachelors need an army of tailors, waiters, cooks, distant relatives and hotel landlords to keep them comfortable.

When old maids are ill, they tie up their heads in pocket handkerchiefs, take homœopathic pellets out of two bottles, alternately, and get well.

When old bachelors are ill they go to bed and send for four doctors, have a consultation; a mantle-piece full of black bottles; all the amiable married men who belong to the club to sit up with them at night, besides a hired nurse; they telegraph to their relations, and do their best to impress the world with the idea that they are dying.

When an old maid travels she takes a sandwich, a piece of pound cake, a bottle of lemonade in a hand basket, and lunches comfortably in the carriage.

When an old bachelor travels he orders a dinner in courses at the station, and raves because he has not time to eat it before "fifteen minutes for refreshments" are over.

Old maids drink weak tea, and it cures their headaches.

Old bachelors drink strong liquors which gives them headaches.

Old maids are modest; they think their youth is over and their beauty gone. If after a while, some autumnal love is given them, they take it as a sort of miracle, and hope people will not laugh at them for "marrying so late in life."

Old bachelors believe that all women are in love with them, and that they must carefully guard themselves from traps laid to inveigle them into matrimony. They also fondly cherish the belief that should they eventually become married men, the world expects them to exhibit great taste in women by their choice, and that the "other fellows" will laugh if their portion be not tender youth and beauty; also that when they marry, many women will expire of jealousy.

Any one intending to reside above a week at a watering place on the continent is a fool if he remains at a hotel. On arriving he should leave his luggage at the station and walk along two or three of the main streets. He will see bills before the doors of lodgings to let. Having chosen his lodgings, he has only to go back to the station and get his luggage. The dearest lodgings ought not to be above one pound sterling per week for each room; but if he is satisfied with a small room he may obtain it for about ten shillings per week. The maximum cost of breakfast, consisting of rolls, butter, eggs and coffee, provided by the lodging-house keeper, should be one shilling. His lunch should cost him one shilling, and his dinner, with wine, if he wishes to fare sumptuously, three shillings. His total expenditure should, therefore, not exceed seven shillings per diem. In traveling, as in everything else, it is more pleasant to be rich enough for money to be no object, but all should cut their costs according to their cloth, and not write whimpering letters to newspapers because they are not able to make a small amount of cloth produce a very large coat.—Home Journal.

Astronomers tell us that if there was a telegraph wire from the earth to the nebula in Andromeda, it would take 1,250,000 years for a dispatch from here to reach its destination. And suppose the rate was forty cents, and you sent the message to be paid at the end of the line, how like all eternity the interest would pile up on the other fellow by the time the boy handed him the message! Figure it up, some one of you.

A lady was heard to ask a friend in the street car the other day: "Annie, is it proper to say this 'ere and that 'ere?" "Why Kate, of course not," was the reply. "Well," said Kate, "I dont know whether it is proper or not, but I feel cold in this ear from that air." The conductor fainted.

A son of Alexander Hamilton is about to erect a granite portrait statue of his father, to be eight feet in height. It will represent Hamilton standing with one hand resting on a column, and at his feet a number of books. It is to stand on a heavy pedestal, and will be placed in Trinity Churchyard, New York, where Hamilton is buried.

The flower of the family is generally in a sasque.

A Preacher's Trick.

This minister had been invited to preach as a candidate in a little rural church in Northern Pennsylvania, where the members, although only on a par with most distant country churches, liked to deceive themselves that they were "pretty well posted." Before starting for the place the minister met an old clerical friend, who had had some experience in the entire neighborhood, and who advised him to "give them some Latin and Greek; it will tickle their vanity, and they'll set you down for a very smart man."

There was a little difficulty in the way of the minister's giving his hearers a dose of Latin and Greek, for he knew no more of either language than the people he was to preach to. But he was equal to the emergency. He was a native of Wales, and spoke Welsh as well as he did English, though these two were the only languages he knew anything about. When he had got nicely into the sermon, he introduced a little passage of Scripture, and said: "This passage, brethren, has been slightly altered in the translation. It is only in the original Hebrew that you can grasp its full meaning. I will read it to you in Hebrew, so that you may comprehend it more clearly; and he gave them the passage in very good Welsh. The old deacons looked at each other, and nodded approval, as though they would say: "That's the stuff; that's the kind of thing we want."

Presently the minister, who saw by the faces of his hearers that he had made a hit, came upon another Scripture passage that could not be correctly rendered in English. "This passage," said he, has to be read in the original to be appreciated. "In all languages there is none I know in which the meaning can be so well expressed as in Greek I will read you the verse in Greek;" and again he gave them a long Welsh sentence. Again the deacons nodded approvingly, and before long the minister found it necessary to read a verse in Latin, "so his hearers might understand it thoroughly," and gave them a little more Welsh.

Everything was going along smoothly, and the minister, as he approached the end of his sermon, thought he would give them just one more taste of the dead languages. "I am about to read you," said he, "another passage on this subject. But it is another of those passages that have been altered in the translation, and I will read it to you in the Chaldaic, in which it was written." He was just about to give them a little more Welsh, when, casting his eye over the congregation, he saw seated near the door a jolly-looking man, who was holding his sides tight to keep from bursting with laughter. The minister took in the situation in an instant. Here was a man in the church who understood Welsh, and who was laughing at the trick that had been played upon the congregation. But not a feature in the minister's face changed. Fixing his eyes straight upon the laughing man, just as the congregation thought he was about to give them the Chaldaic version, he said again in Welsh:

"For God's sake, my friend, don't say a word about this, till I have a chance to talk with you."

The congregation went home, satisfied that they had listened to one of the most learned of sermons; the laughing man never told the story, and the minister was soon settled over the church, the people believing that a clergyman who could read the Scriptures in five languages was just the man for them.—N. Y. Times.

CRUDE PETROLEUM AS A REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—Dr. M. M. Griffith reports some astonishing results obtained by the administration of crude petroleum to consumptives. He claims that out of twenty-five cases of well-marked tuberculosis so treated twenty are to all means of diagnosis cured; the rest have been materially benefitted; none have been under treatment more than four months. The nausea attending the use of ordinary crude petroleum led him to adopt the semi-solid oil that forms on the casing and tubing of wells. This, made into three to five grain pills by incorporating any inert vegetable powder, was administered three to five times a day in one pill doses. The first effect, he says, is the disappearance of the cough; night sweats are relieved, appetite improves, and weight is rapidly gained. It is to be hoped that Dr. Griffith has not mistaken some self-limiting phase of throat or bronchial disorder for the true consumption of the lungs; also that continued trial of the alleged remedy will justify the high opinion he has formed in regard to its efficiency.—Scientific American.

Appearances are deceiving. We know of girls that look so angelic, delicate, and modest as a dew-drop on a rosebud, who when they get sweetly settled in the arms of Morpheus will snore with an energy that will shake the button on the outside cellar door.

Our fathers in the Mayflower began their famous political compact with the words "In the name of God, Amen." Daniel Webster was accustomed to call this sentence the first clause of the American Constitution.

The bonds of matrimony are much sought after as a permanent investment.

SAN FRANCISCO AGENCY.—L. P. Fisher, 21 Merchants' Exchange, is our Agent, and is authorized to contract for advertising, receive subscriptions and make collections on our account.

OUR CHARTER.

Sometime since our citizens sent a draft of a city or town charter to Hon. J. Wasson, who introduced it in the Assembly. It is getting along in the session, when we should have a town incorporation of some kind. The spring "boom," so far as an influx of population is in question, has set in, and it is absolutely necessary that some means should be placed in our hands, as a community, to protect our town from epidemics, which threaten us on the disappearance of the snow and the advent of warm weather. That we will have much sickness here unless a good system of drainage can be inaugurated, there can be no question; it is a mere matter of time only. During the Winter much garbage etc, has been thrown out on to the back lots and alleys, and when the melting of the snow reveals it to the searching rays of the sun, the chances are that the medical fraternity will have another harvest like unto that of last Fall. It is possible—nay, more than probable—that our charter will not secure a passage, on account of a general bill for town incorporations now pending in the Legislature; but, whether it does or not, it is certain we will be able to get up some sort of a town government through the operation of the general law.

New Laws.

The following are the bills which have been signed by the Governor, and became laws during the past week.

Making appropriations for the salaries of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Deficiency appropriations of the State Printing offices, thirtieth fiscal year.

Deficiency appropriations of the State Printing office; twenty-ninth year.

Amending sections 5,492 and 2,492 of Civil Code, concerning public nuisances.

Amending sections 310 and 311 of political Code relative to enactment of statutes.

Amending section 395 of Code of Civil Procedure, relating to postponement of trials.

Repealing Act of March 30, 1878, providing for extermination of squirrels in certain counties.

Providing for issuance of temporary teacher's certificates.

Bogus gold $5 pieces are being circulated in Sacramento. The coin has the right sound, exact in weight and size, very finely executed, gold plated, of the dates 1814, 1847 and 1875. These pieces, the Record-Union says, are the product of a company which executes its work in ships at sea, originally off the Spanish Coast. The composition of the pieces is an alloy of platinum and silver, heavily gilded. French and English coin is also imitated by the same parties.

A New York dispatch says that hostility to the Chinese coming in numbers is being manifested. Those coming east are now said to be under contract to take the place of striking laundresses in Troy and elsewhere.

So the New Yorkers are beginning to wake up. They will have an opportunity to get acquainted with the Celestial horde, and can then tell how they "like it themselves."

The State Prison Commissioners have under consideration the feasibility of establishing a stove foundry at San Quentin. It is thought the idea will meet with general favor. There is no industry of the kind on the Coast that would be conflicted with, all stoves sold here being manufactured in the East.

RAILROADING.—The Carson Tribune is much exercised over a rumor that the Virginia and Truckee Railroad is about to pass into the hands of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and having no exalted opinion of the latter named Company, it sees nothing in it to hope for in Carson's future.

The Gov. Goodwin and Great Admiral left San Francisco together on the 15th November, loaded with wheat for Great Britian, where they are reported to have arrived on the 5th instant, in 111 days.

The Duchess of Marborough writes that the distress in Ireland continues general and in some parts is increasing.

A $100,000 mortgage on lands belonging to the stage firm of Cluggage & Parker has been filed for record at Carson.

On Sunday evening Mrs. Johanna Gibbs aged 60, fell from a balcony in Sacramento and broke her neck.

D. O. Mills, who is now in New York, has given $1,000 to the Park Relief Fund in San Francisco.

The municipality of Paris will present Professor Nordenskjold, Swedish Arctic Explorer, with a gold medal.

The Sacramento militia companies have been supplied with arms and equipments from the Benicia arsenal.

Gold Hill had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Tuesday evening.

On Tuesday, 12 cars of emigrants left San Francisco for the East.

SAN FRANCISCO.

KEARNEY ARRESTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Dennis Kearney was arrested by the police at his residence this morning on two charges of misdemeanor based on remarks at the meeting on Tuesday night. He furnished bail and was discharged from custody.

At 1 o'clock P. M. the score in the walking match stood O'Leary, 311; Weston, 302.

The arrest of Kearney was accomplished quietly and while it has caused a great deal of comment, has occasioned no excitement or demonstration of any kind. Public opinion seems to be divided, as to the wisdom of the movement, and there is much expression, to the effect that it will amount to nothing, because of the impossibility of obtaining a conviction. This view is mainly based on the fact that the Sheriff, who has the drawing of the jurors, is a personal and political friend of Kearney, and was elected on the Workingmen's ticket, as was also the District Attorney. The witness in the case is a member of the police force who has been attending, in disguise, the meetings and street demonstrations of the Workingmen and taking notes. There are many who think that the Citizens Protective Union will be able to exercise a moral pressure that will result in a conviction of Kearney, and that the policy of making arrests of any person indulging in incendiary language will be vigorously pursued, until the agitators are either locked up or cowed into the observance of the letter and spirit of the laws.

A Seattle, W. T. dispatch says that a dispute has existed over the ownership of a piece of land at Leborne, between Michael Padden and a neighbor named Clark. During Clark's absence Padden commenced fencing in the land. Mrs. Clark ordered him off and on his refusal to go, put a shot gun in the hands of her son, aged only 8 years, and told him to drive Padden away. The boy complied with her order to the extent of shooting Padden dead in his tracks. No arrests yet.

PLACARDS SEIZED.

This morning the police seized a number of placards exhibited on the public streets bearing the announcement; "Read the Communist and awake," and "Be freemen;" "Thieves in council," "Price 10 cents, by newsdealers." The authorship of the placards has not been ascertained by the authorities.

VESSEL ASHORE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 11.—A Portland dispatch says that a British bark whet ashore on the lower end of Land Island while attempting to cross the Columbia River bar yesterday. The bar very rough and the vessel has been driven half a mile up and is pounding heavily, and will prove a total loss. All hands are yet on board, and cannot be taken off till the tide turns, when the ship will be abandoned. The cargo is insured for full value in British and foreign marine companies. The vessel was worth about fifty thousand, dollars and probably insured.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—Zuck presented suffrage petition signed by about 1000 women of Santa Clara county.

SENATE.—The first business the final passage of the San Francisco School Bill—passed, ayes, 20; noes, 8. Moreland and West both announced their intention of filing protest against the bill as a gross violation of the Constitution, in its being special legislation.

The Senate then took up the general education bill, and several amendments were adopted. Davis offered an amendment, apparently unimportant, but which contained a vast deal more than appeared on its face. It was the old fight, McGuffey versus the Pacific Coast Series. The bill as drawn allows changes to be made only during May, and the bill being without the usual section, that it shall take effect immediately, would not therefore go into effect until sixty days after passage, so that without amendment no change could be made in text books this year, nor until July 1881. The amendment offered was simply to add June, during which no change could be made. This, with another amendment, to be offered by Wendell, will allow a change this year unless they should be subsequently eliminated. This is a success for Bancroft & Co. On roll call a motion to reconsider prevailed. McIntosh moved to place the bill on its final passage and it was passed under a demand for the previous question, ayes 48; noes 28.

ASSEMBLY.—Committee on Labor and Capital reported Assembly bill No. 110, establishing 8 hours as a day's work, with amendments, for passage.

Tyler called up his motion to reconsider the vote by which Assembly bill No 163, prohibiting playing for drinks, or gambling in saloons, was rejected. He made a lengthy speech in favor of the bill.

SUICIDE.

MODESTO, Mar. 11.—Edward Sorensen, a brewer, aged 23 years, suicided at his brother's saloon, this afternoon, with a pistol. Lack of employment and love troubles are the supposed causes.

SHARON SPEAKS.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—In the Senate, to-day Sharon presented a petition of newspaper publishers for a reduction of the duty on paper. Referred. Sharon thought the tariff might now advantagously be removed from many articles. The tariff interests, he said, are always represented here, but the people are not; they are long suffering, patient and enduring, and never moving until roused by some great wrong. Sharon then said there had been comment upon his long absence. This absence was caused by the fact that after his election the operations of a friend had involved him to the extent of millions of dollars, and his duty to the large interests depending upon him had demanded his attention. He regretted this, as he would have been glad to take part in the deliberation of the Senate. He would be obliged for the same reason to be absent for the next three or four weeks, and asked the indulgence of the Senate. On that account, now that he knows his duties, and responsibilities, his resignation was at the disposal of his constituents whenever they chose to call for it.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—On the second of February last, John Stetson of Boston, a theatrical manager, came to Washinton and entered a copy of the Opera of the Pirates of Penseance, in the office of the Librarian of Congress. He paid in two dollars fee, and received a certificate of copy right, which gives him the exclusive proprietorship of the Opera, in this country. Gilbert and Sullivan, the author of the Opera, had in some unaccountable manner neglected to obtain a copy right for their work, and have gone back to England. Librarian Stafford did not know who Mr. Stetson was, and had no righ to question his ownership of the Opera.

CHINESE GOING EAST.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The Herald says that Mrs. Sargant in an interview with a reporter, yesterday, said; "I intend shortly to commence a series of anti-Kearney lectures in New York. I will show the Chinese problem in its true colors. The proceeds of these lectures will go to a general fund for the purpose of aididg the Chinese to emigrate from San Francisco to New York. It will be an easy matter to secure special rates and paying the fares of 100 or 200 at a time, as the case may be. Of course, when the present limited exodus from California is accelerated by inducements which New York shall offer, the Mongolians will fairly swarm here. Their value as workmen in trades is increased by their dislikes strikes, and the employers of Chinamen are never embarressed by desertion at a critical time. I intend, with assistance of my friends, to see what can be done with the manufacturers of this city in this respect. There is skilled labor of every kind wasting in the West, simply because a few ignorant fools have started a prejudice in activity. Lum Sing Bing, a well educated Chinaman, who arrived from San Francisco a few days ago, was visited in Mott street by a reporter. He said the excitement in California was due entirely to the men who support Kearney."

TILDEN IN OHIO.

COLUMBUS, March 11.—The strength of Tilden in this state is growing steadily. The Republicans are becoming alarmed, at the evidences of his popularity. The struggles of the various Republican candidates, to secure the delegation to the Chicago Convention waxes warm. Grant's handlers have evidently opened a new barrel. The Blaine men seem to have plenty of money also, while the Suerman boom is being vigorously worked, by the Federal bead and butter brigade. The Cleveland Plaindealer is out for Tilden and Bishop.

DARING ROBBERY

OMAHA, March 11.—One of the most daring robberies, ever committed in Nebraska, occurred this afternoon. The Sidney and Blackhills Treasure coach arrived last night with bullion, gold dust, and currency, for the East, in all amounting to $125,000. Early this morning it was conveyed to the Union Express office for shipment. At noon the Express Agent C. N. Allen, went home for dinner and returned in about half an hour. On his return he found the door barred upon the inside. He called Henry Snyder, and Joe Clebrone, and together they burst the door open, all the treasure was gone, and a hasty examination revealed a large hole in the floor near where the money had been placed large enough for a man to enter through. Under the express room is the place where the coal is kept. Search was begun amongst the coal, as no one had seen any wagon or person going away from the building. Under a thick layer of coal one bag of bullion was found, and further on several more were found, in all amounting to about $112,000 currency, and two bullion bricks amounting to $13,000. One brick missing and there is no clue to the perpetrators.

Superintendent Lowe, and a number of Detectives arrived from Cheyene in a special car and they are investgating the matter. The immense weight of the Treasure, 480 pounds, prevented the robbers from carrying it off, and they were compelled to hide it at the first available spot. The excitement in Omaha, is at fever heat and many are suspected of complicity in the daring deed. If the evidence should prove strong against some of the parties suspected, it is thought that Nebraska will be saved the expense of trial.

PARIS, March 11.—The Russian revolutionary committee, publishes an address, thanking the French people for refusing the extradition of Hartman.

A great fire occured in Moscow on Monday the weaving works. Twenty four persons burned to death and 20 injured. The entire building destroyed.

WORK RESUMED.

VIRGINIA CITY, March 11.—The repairs to the Sierra Nevada air compressor were completed to-day and work resumed at 2 o'clock.

THE CHRONICLE.

BODIE, MARCH 12, 1880.

The CHRONICLE Office is on the second floor of "Goodson's Building," east side of Main street, between Standard Avenue and Green street.

JOB PRINTING.—Job printing of the finest description will be furnished at this office at Sacramento prices.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVALS—Y esterday.

Mrs. Harrington and daughter, D. As Hayes, S. Keist, C. Taulphasis, J. Dolan, Mrs. Hootan, Mrs. Dalton, T. Richards, A. Percy, Miss Mollie Rosencrans.

DEPARTURES—Yesterday.

J. Parham and wife, Mr. Walker, P. Gleason, L. B. Gleason, Miss Daisy Lawrence, Mrs. Kenney and T. Kenbetty.

THE PRICE.—The Standard says that 65 cents per 1,000 ems has always been paid in Bodie. A year ago the Standard compositors said they were paid $28 per week—equal to 50 cents per 1,000. When the News was first issued, Mr. Hoole informed us that he had offered 60 cents, but had to pay 65 because the Standard to retain its men, had advanced it to 65. They advanced, and we did not. No reduction, but simply the old figures, with us.

POLICE COURT.—On the 6th instant W. C. Barton assaulted C. Jackson on Main street, near Finley's saloon. Jackson, who is a cripple, was knocked down and kicked by Barton until he was senseless. Jackson swore out a warrant for Barton's arrest. Barton was arrested and gave bail, and yesterday he was tried and found guilty, and will appear for sentence to-day, before Justice Peterson.

INCORPORATION.—Articles of Incorporation have been filed of the Bodie Queen Gold and Silver Mining Company, for operating in Mono county, with main office at San Francisco. Directors, William H. Hart, Leander Shares, George J. Carrier, A. H. Todd and J. L. Armstrong; all of San Francisco. Capital stock, $1,000,000 in $10 shares.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning, John Scott, a miner in the Standard mine, while at work in one of the drifts, had his foot mashed and bone broken by the falling of a large rock. Dr. Deal was sent for and dressed the wound. It is probable he will be obliged to have the foot amputated. At last accounts he was resting comfortably.

A JUROR.—When our cotemporaries lose a subscriber they can add it to the CHRONICLE's circulation. In this lopping off, the News is first; Standard second; and Free Press third. Our people say there is room for two papers, and no more.

NEW JUSTICE.—Smith Homer, recently appointed Justice of the Peace for Mill Creek, is in town, and will file his bond as Justice within a day or two.

DONT SHOOT.—John Richards was yesterday arrested for discharging a fire arm within the city limits, and fined by Justice Newman, $30.

OUT.—A. McArthur, who was injured recently at the Champion mine, is able to be out on the streets, and will soon resume work.

DON'T SCARE!—The Union Typographical boom "don't scare worth a rent" Yesterday we received nine new advertisements, and so it goes on.

HOSPITAL CONTRACT.—The Hospital contract has been awarded to Dr. Summers.

WHEN?—Is it not about time the Bodie Guards were receiving their arms etc?

By a recent Act of the Legislature, the County Superintendent of Schools in each county is authorized to issue a temporary certificate to any teacher whose certificate has expired, or will expire before the first of next June. The certificate so issued will be of the same grade as the one expired, but will be valid only until the first meeting of the Board competent to issue teacher's certificates.

An act of the British Parliament has just been promulgated, which declares all marriages which have been solemnized on board of H. M. ships in foreign stations in presence of the commanding officer, either by religious ceremony or official, to be valid, as if performed within the Queen's dominions with all the forms required by law, provided that no other legal invalidity exists.

The Reese River Reveille speaks a good word for Blaine as follows:

One thing is certain, the anti-Chinese movement can boast an ardent supporter in Senator Blaine, and if that gentleman is elected President next fall the people of the Pacific coast can rest assured that their interests with regard to the Chinese question will be duly attended to by him.

On Monday afternoon Chas. M. Lawrence, of Virginia City, attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself in the mouth. He may recover. Financial troubles are thought to be the cause of this attempt on his life.

In Modoc county, California, a man named Cannon has lost 2,100 sheep out of 5,000.

At this rate he will soon be "fired" out, so far as sheep are concerned.

THE citizens elected the most of their ticket at Salinas City on Tuesday. The Kearneyites seem to be out of luck this year.

The Herald relief fund is now $972.50.
